Space Madness
Comments

Hi John K. I hope you'll help yourself to a big helping of these fresh Nickelodeon storyboard comments.

1. Page 83. People seem confused by the transition from the previous scene to this. They need help in understanding that Ren is still suffering from Space Madness, that Stimpy is still sane, and that the History Eraser assignment is a diabolical job designed to make Stimpy fail. Some ideas: Put a little more explanation in Ren's log entry. Here's a rough example of what I mean:

EXT. SHOT OF THE SPACECRAFT
DISS TO REN AT HELM.

REN: ~~Captain's Log.~~ Have fully recovered from my bout with the Space Madness but am now concerned about Cadet Stimpy. He has been acting oddly. Maybe if I occupy his mind with more duties,
I can somehow prevent him from catching the Space Madness!

2. All the "Johnny" dialogue was deemed too inaccessible by Geoffrey Darby. It was suggested that Ren limit his rant to food based delirium.

3. Ren can't eat soap. There is an insane fear amongst the suit-wearing folks that this would be encouraging kids to eat toxic soap slivers in their tub.

4. P. 21A. Vanessa doesn't think anyone will get the floating eyeball film gag.

5. P. 45 People here are still acutely uncomfortable with the idea of Stimpy saying "man." OK ON PG 45

6. P. 40 What does "unlax" mean. It's not in the dictionary.
CHANGE TO "RELAX"

7. P. 87. Confusion about the crude Stimpy drawing in the middle panel. Shouldn't he look confused? FAX L.O. (MIKEF.)

8. P. 51. Confusion about the first panel. What is Ren doing?

9. Not much enthusiasm for the different hats on Stimpy gag.
Would you consider nixing it?

10. Some concern that the line "bask in the warmth of our friendship" won't be clear to kids. One suggestion. "We're out?" SEE CHRIS' BD.

That is all.
